We introduce several equivalence relations on the set of subgroups of a countable group G, defined in terms of the quasi-regular representations, and present some rigidity results in terms of those equivalence relations for certain classes of subgroups. Furthermore, we give some results concerning the ideal structure of the C*-algebras generated by the quasi-regular representations.

This is joint work with Bachir Bekka.