JOURNAL OF PALAEOGEOGRAPHY

Journal of Palaeogeography is a newly launched international journal of geoscience.

Journal of Palaeogeography aims to provide a forum for the publication of high quality research papers:

- (1) The first-hand data should be sufficient and credible;
- (2) The author's own academic viewpoints or theories are clear;
- (3) The manuscripts should have characteristics of their own countries or of the manuscripts themselves;
- (4) Figures should be of high resolution and colored if needed.

We sincerely invite specialists from all over the world to write or recommend high quality academic manuscripts for the journal. Hope for your join and contribution.
