The lectures, tests, and assignments complemented each other.

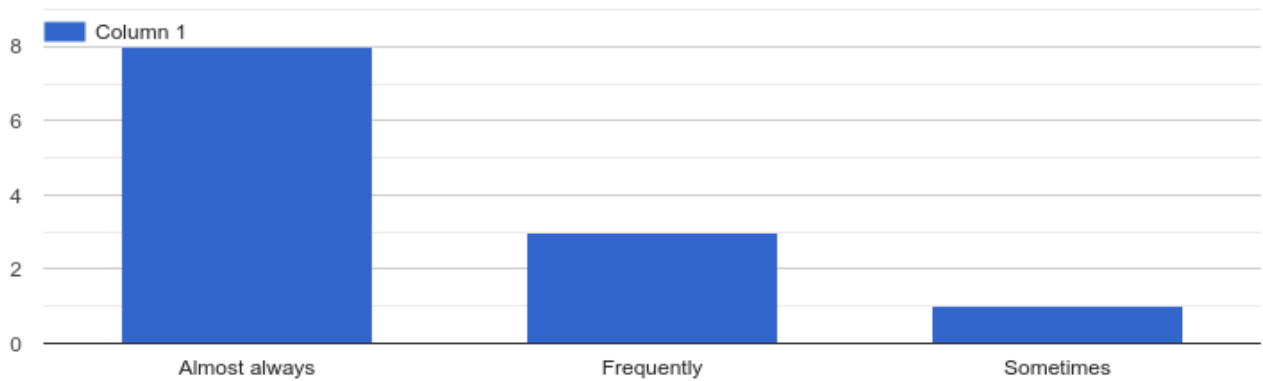

The instructional materials (i.e., readings, handouts, study guides, lab manuals, multimedia, software) increased my knowledge and skills in the subject matter.

Excellent

Everything was well coordinated and presented in a way that made it easy for us to understand.

The lectures were well prepared and presented. The teacher's knowledge and willingness gave us a sufficient understanding of the material. The lectures were presented in a way which helped us gradually learn the difficult concepts and ideas.

He was very good in both of them his ability to manage teaching materials has been satisfactory to say the least

His knowledge was of a very high standard and he tried to pass this knowledge on to us in the simplest possible way.

Suggestions for Improvement

One thing I would highly suggest for this course in general ( not just for the lab) would be the use of "e-class" as the main source of communication and especially announcements as it's the one that is mostly used in the whole department and everyone had access to it.

As someone who didn't attend the first classes in person and without any formal announcement on eclass for the procedures, I found it quite difficult at the beginning to understand what's going on, that the attendance of lab is needed, which days the lab takes place, the need of Mathematica etc and I found all this out from mouth to mouth communication, by asking random people if they know anything and finally got in the slack team.

In my opinion, students would be benefited with more material and practice during lesson.

Nothing.
